

ALLT

From The New World - European Tour

ALLT:

Formed in 2020, Allt is a progressive metalcore band from Karlskoga, Sweden, known for their audiovisual storytelling and innovative approach to the genre. The name "Allt," meaning "everything" in Swedish, embodies the band's philosophy of never being confined by genre boundaries. Their music draws inspiration from the world around them, incorporating stories and myths that span the ages into conceptually rich compositions. Their highly anticipated debut album From The New World is out now via Century Media Records.

Since their inception, Allt has toured extensively across Europe and the UK, sharing the stage with bands like Bleed from Within and Animals As Leaders. With their debut album, From The New World, now released, Allt will embark on their From The New World European Tour from March 2nd to 23rd, 2025, with shows across Germany, Poland, the Netherlands, the UK, France, and more.

Commenting on the tour, guitarist Olle Nordström says, "We've been working towards this moment for years, and the chance to finally bring From The New World to life on our own headline tour feels surreal. We're excited to share this journey with our fans across Europe and the UK."

Allt are currently on tour supporting Swedish metalcore band Imminence on The Black Tour, offering audiences a first glimpse of their new album in a live setting.

ATLAS:

ATLAS is a 5-piece Modern Metal band from Finland.

These messengers of melancholy have bridged the gap between ancient and modern worlds with their innovative sound that takes the rawness and mysticism of Finnish folklore and poetry and infuses it with the crushing rhythms, colossal production and captivating melodies of modern metal.
