

Ankor

Shoganai EU/UK Tour 2025

The relentless ANKOR announce their biggest headline tour so far „THE SHÖGANAI TOUR 2025“!

The incredible quintet hailing from beautiful Barcelona, with members from the UK and Greece, are not resting after their massive festival run this year and hit Europe again on a huge 6 weeks headline Tour and they will be joined by no other than the amazing CONQUER/DIVIDE as special guests.

2024 was an exceptionally successful year for ANKOR. The band, consisting of Vocalist Jessie Williams from Bristol, Drummer Eleni Nota out of Athens Greece and Guitarists David Romeu & Fito Martinez as well as Bassist Julio Lopez from Catalonia are looking back at massive festival performances such as Hellfest, Wacken Open Air, Resurrection Fest, Tuska, Summerbreeze, ReLoad, Rock Castle and many more as well as headline dates in Germany and a gib European Tour supporting Beyond The Black this year.

With their brand new record „SHOGANAI“ on board, they are ready to hit the stages across Europe once more and It had been foreseeable for a while that this would happen: Many of the past tour dates, which took the quintet from Barcelona to numerous countries on the continent, were sold out or upgraded. ANKOR's energetic and incredibly entertaining shows are inspiring more and more fans from all corners of the world and obviously arousing their thirst for more. The total of 30 newly announced dates will bring the quintet to completely new territories, but also serving their loyal fanbases in the UK, Germany and their home country Spain.

And what is for certain is, that tickets will sell fast as the musical impact of the Catalonians, has become increasingly gigantic, which can be witnessed at their performance at W:O:A for example: VENOM - LIVE AT W:O:A 2024 The combination of Asian pop-culture mixed with contemporary Metalcore and a hint of their Spanish heritage creates something the scene hasn't seen nor heard yet. With thousands of listeners around the globe and a breathtaking performance ANKOR is now ready to mesmerise you!