

Mad Caddies

MAD CADDIES – GOOD VIBES, LOUD BRASS, NO RULES

Born on the California Central Coast and raised on punk rock, sun, and beach nights, the Mad Caddies have been mixing ska, punk, reggae, and pure sunshine for over twenty years – without ever feeling like a nostalgia act.

Their songs glide from relaxed grooves to exploding brass attacks that turn every tired crowd into a sweaty, dancing chaos. Imagine punk attitude, Caribbean swing, and big sing-along hooks in one wild package.

The Caddies have played everywhere – from tiny pubs to huge European festivals – and still bring the same playful energy to the stage that started it all. No gloss, no showbiz facade. Just friends chasing the perfect live moment night after night.

If you catch them live, you'll know immediately what's up: Mad Caddies don't play concerts – they throw parties that will stay in your head long after the last horns have faded away.
