

Ry X

Dusk Tour

GRAMMY-nominated artist and producer, RY X, is constantly in pursuit of connection.

Connection to nature, to spirit, to the human experience - expression and vulnerability is at the core of his work and what he evokes as an artist. He has toured and performed around the globe in some of the worlds most Iconic spaces, and collaborated with orchestras and establishments like LA Philharmonic and London Philharmonic, along with producing and writing records for artists like Drake, Diplo, Black Coffee, and John Legend.

He has amassed over a billion streams online, and received platinum and gold records for his recordings, along with being invited to share his work at the Nobel Peace Prize and places like Notre Dame.

He has also scored for the Gothenburg Opera and NDT, and continues to work in collaboration with dance and other art mediums, along with scoring numerous film projects. His work is multifaceted, deeply emotional, and continually based in a reflection of what it ultimately means to be human, in its wide range of somatic and emotional experience. Ry engages all forms of artistic expression with his heart at the fore.
