

Seb Lowe

Meet Seb Lowe, the rising British indie star at just 22 years old, leading a band composed of Kate Couriel on violin and Joel Goodwin on drums. Drawing inspiration from a diverse array of artists including Sinead O'Connor, Led Zeppelin, Arctic Monkeys, Eminem and David Bowie Seb's music reflects a blend of their influences. While his songs tackle pressing issues such as societal injustice, politics, sexism & more Seb's wit, humour and melodic sensibilities ensure they are delivered with nuance and accessibility. He values the power of words to spark meaningful conversations, even among unlikely participants. Seb's journey began during the pandemic when he found a platform on TikTok showcasing his talent in 60-second clips. Despite initial reluctance, he embraced the opportunity to connect with audiences in a new way. Now, with an audience of over 500k and nearly 11 million likes, Seb's TikTok presence has become a significant cornerstone of his career serving as a testament to his ability. Seb Lowe and his band recently took to the stage at some of the leading UK festivals such as Truck Fest, Y Not Festival and Neighbourhood Weekender where they performed on the main stage. These landmark performances mark a significant milestone in Seb's live career and demonstrate his growing audience. Seb Lowe is on the path to becoming the voice of a generation.
