LINE UP STATEMENT:

After careful consideration, Vulvarine and founding member Suzy Q have mutually agreed to part ways. We thank Suzy for the time we shared and the journey we took together, and we wish her all the best and continued success in her future musical endeavors.

"I want to thank all the friends, fans, promoters, and partners who have been part of this journey. I'm incredibly grateful for your support. This decision was not easy. But despite the changes, the music lives on. I hope you'll continue to be part of the journey as we all move forward into a new chapter and keep the passion alive."
