

Beyond The Black announce highly-Anticipated 'Dancing In The Dark' Tour for 2024!

After the release of their very successful self-titled album Beyond The Black, which was released in January 2023 the band now share the brand new single 'Call My Name' with their fans. Beside that BEYOND THE BLACK also announce their Dancing In The Dark tour for 2024.

Jennifer Haben comments:

„With "Call My Name" we wanted to create a song with whom you cannot help but bang your head real hard. It's organic, honest and in your face. Inspired by the story of Stephen Kings The Dark Tower we've formed a symbiosis of its elements and our own to tell a whole new tale about yearning, persistence and these wounds of human life that feel as if they will never heal completely."
