

5 musicians from Des Moines Iowa looking for world domination. Doing the unachievable, using their new creative sound and style.

VENDED was established in February of 2018 and consists of Cole Espeland ( Guitar), Griffin Taylor (Vocals), Simon Crahan (Drums), Jeremiah Pugh (Bass), Connor Grodzicki (Guitar) - With a rhythm section that uses speed, power and precision. Ferocious, aggressive and driving guitars. Vocals that portray hardships and the reality of life. VENDED has a unique sound that is at the forefront of a new era and generation.

After two years of commitment and hard work VENDED played their sold out debut show at local venue Vaudville Mews March 8th 2020, which sported a huge crowd response. Days following the show the world shutdown causing an unplanned hiatus.

Since then they have come back stronger and hungrier than ever. Releasing their debut EP, and two subsequent singles "Ded To Me" and "Overall".

Touring around the world extensively for two years nonstop hitting over 30 countries and 3 continents, barreling full speed on their path to world domination. This is just the beginning.

WELCOME TO VENDED