

WIDE AWAKE TOUR

Having captured the hearts of countless music fans with their debut album 'Eyes Closed' (2018), HAEVN will unveil their new album 'Wide Awake' this coming autumn. Setting out on a European tour, spanning an impressive 30 concerts across the UK, Germany, Poland, Austria, Switzerland and their beloved home country, the Netherlands.

"We take immense pleasure in guiding our audience through an emotional journey, introducing a break from the hectic pace of everyday life and offering a moment of reflection", remarks Marijn van der Meer and Jorrit Kleijnen.

Renowned for their distinctive sound, seamlessly blending indie-pop and cinematic elements with ethereal vocals, HAEVN promises an unforgettable concert experience filled with captivating arrangements, touching moments and instances of true musical vulnerability.
