

Escape the Internet Tour 2025: Bernth, Charles Berthoud and Ola Englund Unite for European Tour

With their combined influence on YouTube, boasting millions of subscribers collectively, these three modern musicians have captivated audiences worldwide. Now, they are taking their talents from the screen to the stage in an unforgettable live show that goes beyond the regular concert experience.

Bernth and Charles Berthoud have already tested the waters with three sold-out shows in Reunion in April 2024, receiving rave reviews from attendees. With a live band and fellow guitarist Ola Englund in tow, the "Escape the Internet Tour 2025" promises to deliver a spectacular show featuring material beloved by fans of all three artists' YouTube channels.

"Our goal is to create an immersive event that combines performing songs and popular videos people know from our channels live on stage, with fun challenges like musical battles and audience interaction," says Bernth. "We'll be joined by a live band, and anyone who's ever enjoyed a video on one of our channels will absolutely love the special show we've put together!"

In addition to the main event, fans will have the opportunity to purchase VIP tickets, granting access to an intimate workshop with all three artists and an exclusive meet-and-greet session. This experience allows fans to connect with the artists on a personal level and learn about advanced techniques on the instrument.
