

Searows is the moniker of Alec Duckart, a Pacific Northwest singer-songwriter and guitarist. Duckart's intimate, hushed and compelling debut album, Guard Dog, was released independently in 2022, soon finding an audience that were already sharing snippets of his music via communities on TikTok. With no real anticipation or expectation for where he wanted the music to land, the record was greeted fondly, and received extensive co-signs from the likes of Ethel Cain and Gracie Abrams, both of whom he has since supported on tour.
